FOR MEN'S BENEFIT.

Handkerchiefs.—The present fashion is to omit breast pockets in all coats, whether Prince Albert, frock, cutaway or sack. Even overcoats are now made without breast pockets. The handkerchief is carried in the lower pocket, the trousers pocket or the inside coat pocket. The rule is now to keep that article hidden as much as possible.

Jewelry for Men.—The most correct gold cuff-link is a small lozenge-shaped or even elliptical bar of burnished or frosted gold with initials engraved on each link. The watch chain should be composed of small links and worn only in the daytime. With evening dress watch chains are not usually visible. Jewelry should be avoided by men.

Straw hats may be worn with morning or sack suits, and also with Tuxedo coats and semi-evening dress. For some years past ultra fashionable men have had a fad for wearing straw hats with frock coats. This fashion has fallen into disuse. In fact, the frock coat is an inconvenient garment during the warm months, and is usually worn only on formal occasions, such as weddings.

Disposing of Hat and Coat.—When making a formal call take your hat and stick in the drawing-room with you. Overcoats and overshoes may be left in the hall. Where you are well acquainted you can leave your hat with your overcoat in the hall, but it would be better form to place them on a chair or settee there than to hang them on the rack. That is usually reserved for intimate friends and members of the household.

Etiquette of Street Cars.—When in a street car, and it is possible, sit to the right of the lady you are escorting, and when you give up your seat to a lady touch your hat whether she acknowledges the courtesy or not. It is considered a proper civility to help a lady whom you know out of the car. A gentleman always rises and gives his seat to a lady, unless he is old or infirm, in which case the retention of his seat is perfectly proper.—Ladies' Home Journal.

HISTORY GLEANINGS.

The first notable improvement in printing presses was that of Stanhope, of England, who in 1795 made a hand press entirely of iron, with a platen that fully covered the bed plate.

Thomas Hussey, bell ringer of Leigh, in Lancashire, 85 years of age, rang the church bell in honor of Queen Victoria's long reign. He had rung the mourning peal for George IV., and also rang for the coronation and death of William IV., and for the accession, coronation, wedding and 50-year jubilee of Queen Victoria.

President John Adams was the son of a Massachusetts farmer. James K. Polk was clerk in a country store. So was Abraham Lincoln. Andrew Johnson was a tailor and his wife taught him how to read. James A. Garfield was a mule driver on the towpath. Andrew Jackson was born in a log hut in the pine woods of North Carolina. Millard Fillmore learned the business of a clothier. James Buchanan was born in a log house in Pennsylvania.

The articles of confederation by which a union was effected between the states then at war with Great Britain, were signed by representatives of eight colonies, July 9, 1775. The colonies agreeing and giving their adhesion to the articles were New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, New York, Virginia and South Carolina, the others coming in afterward. The articles of confederation nominally continued in force until the constitution went into effect in 1789.

A Fricassee.
Cut the eggs in half and take out the yolks. Chop fine with a little ground tongue or ham, or cold fowl, some minced parsley, melted butter, and a very little mustard. Work well together, and fill the whites with it, setting them close together in a deep dish, the open ends up. Heat to boiling some real gravy or chicken broth, add a half teaspoonful of chopped parsley, salt, pepper, and three tablespoonfuls of cream to a cupful of broth. Boil up; pour smoking hot over the eggs, let them stand five minutes, covered, and send to the table.—Good Housekeeping.

The lion-hunter needs steady nerves. If he misses the lion's eye, his life is surely lost. The lion-hunter is not the only man who needs steady nerves. The business man now-days needs them. He must have them if he would bear the strain of business competition and be successful. A man with shaky nerves stands a mighty poor show in the business world of to-day, where he must hit the bull's-eye of fierce competition many times in a day. Steady nerves are dependent upon pure blood, and to have pure blood one must have a perfect digestion.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery goes to the seat of the trouble. It is not a sedative. It makes the nerves steady by furnishing them with proper nutriment. It corrects all disorders of the digestion. It invigorates the liver. It makes the blood rich and pure in nutriment. The nerves receive their proper nourishment from the blood and soon become strong and steady. Business men recognize the value of the "Golden Medical Discovery" and thousands have testified to its virtues. Druggists sell it.

"Having suffered for several years with indigestion," writes Samuel Walker, Esq., of Parkersburg, Chester Co., Pa., "I concluded to try your valuable 'Golden Medical Discovery.' After taking five bottles I was entirely cured. I also suffered from bladder trouble, which was also cured by the 'Discovery.' I feel like a new man."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is a book of 1,008 pages and over three hundred illustrations, some of them colored, all fully explained. This book is free. It has been selling for $1.50. Now you may have it in all its usefulness, and in strong paper covers, for 21 one-cent stamps, which pays the cost of mailing only, or in cloth binding for 31 stamps. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

A MATTER FOR CONSIDERATION.

Can the live stock and farming interests of Nevada support a State government without excessive taxation? That is the question which has been asked several prominent stockmen and farmers and the answer invariably has been an emphatic "no." The stockmen argue that the ranges throughout the State are stocked to about their full capacity and that cattle and sheep, except in a few favored localities, must be fed on hay from two to four months in the year to keep them alive. Farmers say that if they are wholly deprived of a home market by the closing of the mines there will be no profit in their business save in exceptional years, like the present, when there is a failure of crops in other countries. There will be no demand for vegetables, except to supply farm and stock ranches and those engaged in producing them for the home market must go out of the business.

Are those assertions well founded? Can Nevada maintain a State government with its silver mines closed? These are questions which every taxpayer should consider. We must maintain a State Prison, an Asylum for the insane, a home for the orphans and a State University. The actual running expenses of these institutions, not including necessary improvements and repairs to buildings nor the care of the deaf, dumb and blind, is about $100,000 a year. Other expenses incident to the maintenance of a State government increases the expenses to about $200,000 a year. The agricultural and stock interests cannot stand that outlay. Therefore, unless large storage reservoirs for water are constructed and large areas of land now producing nothing more valuable than sagebrush are reclaimed, the people of Nevada cannot maintain a State government if the silver mines of the State are permanently closed.

Do our gold friends in Nevada want the Silver State obliterated from the map and a star effaced from the galaxy of the Union? If not why do they persist in advocating a policy, which if carried into effect is certain to bring about that result. Has their desire for power and fondness for office overcome their manhood and patriotism? Are they willing to barter the interests and welfare of the commonwealth for self-aggrandizement? If not what is their motive for advocating a financial policy the success of which means the destruction of the great industry of Nevada and the ruin and desolation of two-thirds of the villages of the State.

THE BANK OF ENGLAND AND SILVER.

The semi-annual meeting of the directors of the Bank of England was held on Wednesday at which the Governor, in reply to questions, said the bank had no negotiations with the United States Monetary Commissioners. He further stated that the bank had bought no silver. "All we have done," said the Governor, "is to agree under certain circumstances, one of which is the opening of the French mint to silver, to carry out what is permissible under the charter of the bank."

It is announced that the charter of the Bank of England permits it to hold one-fifth of the amount of its note issue in silver, provided always that the French mint is open to the free coinage of silver, and that the price at which silver is procurable and saleable is satisfactory.

That is the best that can be expected from England for silver at present. The money power of that country is opposed to free coinage. It can make more money and get foreign products cheaper by having gold the standard of value and it is not going to voluntarily relinquish a good thing to benefit other nations. If silver was monetized England would have to pay about two dollars a bushel for wheat instead of less than one-half that amount, while the present scarcity of breadstuffs continues. In 1891, when there was more available wheat on the markets than there is to-day, wheat sold at $1.15 per bushel in Chicago. Now with short crops in Europe and in India wheat sells at 93 or 94 cents per bushel in Chicago. England is the greatest purchaser of American wheat and it is not going to favor the monetization of silver and advance the price of wheat and other articles which it purchases in the United States to oblige the farmers of this country. The English money lender knows that his agents in the United States, by liberal contributions to Mr. Hanna's campaign fund, have secured adherence to the single gold standard until the next election and he will not consent to changing a policy that he finds so profitable.

The Supreme Court of California yesterday denied the application of the ousted Board of Supervisors of San Francisco for a writ of certiorari. This is considered a severe blow to the old board. Both new and old boards were in session yesterday in separate apartments. What the next move will be is not known.

Anulfo, the Italian who attempted the life of President Diaz of Mexico Thursday, was lynched yesterday by a mob of the common people. The guards were overpowered, the jail doors battered down and the prisoner dragged out and put to death.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

Nineteen yellow fever cases are reported at Edwards, Miss., but the scare is abating.

Three new cases of yellow fever were reported at New Orleans, and one death from the disease.

Killing frosts occurred Thursday night all over the Dakotas, Minnesota and part of Iowa. Snow fell in western Kansas.

Samuel J. Darrah was shot and killed on his ranch near Banning, Cal. He was the father of Lieutenant Thomas Darrah, U. S. A.

A woman was taken from a train at Mansfield, Ky., Thursday night and died at the depot, of what was said to be yellow fever.

A bad wreck occurred on the Wisconsin Central Road near Milwaukee yesterday morning. Five people were killed and four seriously injured.

Judge Campbell yesterday held Theodore Figel of San Francisco to answer to the charge of murdering his employer, Isaac Hoffman. Figel was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

Three daughters of Preston Howard were burned to death yesterday morning at their home at Port Alma, Lake Erie. The rest of the family escaped, but some of them were seriously burned.

A telegraph message received at St. Petersburg from the interior of Siberia says that on September 14th a balloon believed to be that of Prof. Andree was observed. The balloon was in sight for five minutes.

One thousand operators on the Chase lasting machine in the shoe factories of Brockton, Mass., went out on strike yesterday. Others are expected to join and 2,500 men will be laid off. The strikers demand an increase of wages.

The situation in Alaska was discussed at the Cabinet meeting yesterday. Captain Ray's report to the Secretary of War, regarding his arrival at St. Michaels and the urgent necessity for troops to preserve order, was considered. It was decided to send a company of infantry to Alaska as soon as possible.

The women at Hazleton, Pa., again made an attack on the working miners and drove them out. Over one hundred men reported for work at the Monarch colliery, but the Amazons swooped down on them and forced them to quit. The same conditions existed at other mines. General Gobin sent a squad of soldiers to the scene. When the cavalry reached the place all violence had ceased, but the women followed the troops about the streets hooting at and cursing them.

The Westminster Gazette takes Governor Hugh C. Smith of the Bank of England severely to task regarding his letter to the Chancellor of the Exchequer announcing the readiness of the bank to carry out what is permissible in its charter, viz., to hold one-fifth silver against its note issue. The Gazette says the letter of the Governor is meaningless so far as practice is concerned, but deplors the fact that the bank has budged from its principles. It is claimed that gold is wanted against notes and that an old statute, passed when silver bore a different character, should not be brought up at the bidding of those who wish to dispose of silver. It is also claimed that the bank's reserve is not so large that it can be tinkered with. Robert Benham, a prominent banker, who holds £10,000 of stock as a trustee, has notified the bank that he will sell if the proposed policy is inaugurated, and other trustees will do the same.

Wines! Wines! Wines!

A. T. Dormio & Co., opposite the depot, have just received a large consignment of wines which will be sold at a 25 per cent reduction. They are of Santa Clara and Santa Rosa vintage and are of the purest quality. Just the thing for medicinal and family use. Read the list: Zinfandel, Maderia, Angelica, Tokay, Port, Sherry, Catawba, Claret, Reising and others, also imported Italian wines and grape brandy.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I have this day sold to Mr. Henry Anderson all my right, title and interest in and to the grocery business heretofore conducted by me in the Investment Building, 2d street, Reno, Nev. Mr. Anderson will collect all accounts due me and persons knowing themselves so indebted will please call and pay the same at once.

T. B. BOAZ.

Reno, Nevada, Sept. 15 1897.

The Elko County assessment roll is out. The rate of taxation is $1.67 on each $100 valuation. Taxes payable November 1st. The real property valuations foot up somewhere in the neighborhood of $5,000,000 and the personal property at about $115,000 which should bring the county a total assessment of something like $85,000.

All signs point to good weather for next week and the indications are that the attendance will be large at the Fair.

If you want to lay in your winter wood consult L. D. Folsom. He has a fine quality of wood and at a moderate figure.

Hunters seem to be having excellent luck, judging by the display of grouse, sage hen and wild duck in the restaurant windows.

The Trinity county mining excitement seems to have turned out a most complete fake. It is scarcely mentioned any more.

The lunches at the Granite Saloon cannot be excelled and the beer is served ice cold. A choice stock of wines by the bottle or gallon.

There is no substance used in the composition of "Pearl Gloss Tooth Powder" that can in any way injure the teeth. Sold by Reno Drug Co.

Masked men held up a street car on the P Street line at Sacramento Thursday night relieving Conductor Kelley of what small change he had up on him.

The Monarch and Louvre are popular resorts and the proprietors are constantly making improvements. Fine lunches daily and hot tamales in the evening.

H. Leter was unpacking a lot of new goods yesterday. He has the turtle-neck sweaters, new and stylish hats and many new novelties that he is selling at close prices.

The Granite Saloon is a quiet and pleasant place of resort. Cool beer is a specialty. Choice wines are sold by the gallon or in quantities desired also liquors of all kinds.

Miss Ollie Douglass, who is studying at Dr. Lane's Hospital, San Francisco, for a trained nurse, is in Reno on a visit to relatives. She will return to the city after a short vacation.

C. Novacovich will handle the Kane Brothers' of Coloma, Cal., celebrated fresh fruits. Ladies who contemplate putting up fruit for the winter will do well to call and order their supply.

To-morrow will be a lively day at the track. The final preparations for the week's racing will be in full blast, the racers will be in their best form and the trial with the new starting gate will be interesting.

H. J. Thyes was preparing yesterday for Fair week. He has taken down the canopies in front of his store and put up an ear light. He will have the Upson tamales all week and A. B. C. beer for the million.

Harold Fredrick, a London correspondent of the New York Times describes the prospects of famine in the county of Cork, Ireland and says there is universal alarm there for fear the famine of 1847 is to be repeated.

Call at Muller & Stump's Pabst agency for fine California and imported wines for family and medicinal purposes. Sherry, port, muscatel, angelica and all dry wines by the gallon. Open every day until 8 o'clock.

Do not fail to visit the millinery parlors of Miss E. G. Gibbs, during the opening days viz the 15, 16 and following days. An elegant and complete line of goods including patterns, hats and bonnets. Numerous novelties and souvenirs.

They made short work of the anarchist or other miserable whelp who attempted to take the life of President Diaz of Mexico. He was taken out of jail by a mob and lynched, and the courts were saved the annoyance of dealing with him.

Letters from parties who have already arrived at Dawson City and from others who are on the way are being published in various papers and it will not be long before the world will be pretty thoroughly informed on the Alaskan prospects.

S. Emrich has just finished getting in all of his fall stock in dress goods, blankets, underwear, etc. Having succeeded in securing his stock before the Dingley bill went into effect, he saved the new duties on many of his goods and consequently gives his customers the benefit, by low prices.

R. W. Barross, chief operator of the Associated Press agency here, leaves this morning for Salt City, where he will occupy a similar position. Bob as he is familiarly called, is a genial fellow and will make friends wherever he goes as he has in Reno. He will be succeeded by E. N. Cadwallader.

WEATHER BULLETIN.

(Copyright, 1897, by W. T. Foster.)

St. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 18.—My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from September 25th to 29th.

The next disturbance will reach the Pacific coast about September 30, cross west of the Rockies country by the close of Oct. 1st, the great central valleys Oct. 2d to 4th, the Eastern States the 5th.

The warm wave will cross the west of the Rockies country about Sept. 30th, great central valleys, Oct. 2d, Eastern States 4th. The cool wave will cross the west of the Rockies country about the 3d, great central valleys 5th eastern States October 7th.

In the Northern States temperature of the week ending September 25th will average about normal with a rapidly rising temperature. In the Southern States temperature of this week will average about normal with a rapidly falling temperature about its close.

During the week last above mentioned rainfall in the Northern States will be deficient and in the Southern States in excess, heaviest rains in Texas.

My next bulletin will give a general forecast of October weather, including killing frosts, the frosts of October being of great importance in the Southern States.

The State Fair.

The State Fair will open on Monday and at this writing there is every reason to believe that it will be a success in every particular. There are already several good stables of racers at the track and more are expected to arrive on to-morrow morning's and the evening trains from the west. The racing events will be up to the standard.

It is also proposed to introduce bicycle races and relay races covering five, ten, twenty and possibly fifty miles during the week. Other features new to Nevada Fairs will be sand-wiched in on the program.

The stock exhibit will be good and some of the finest cattle ever seen in the State will be on the ground. The Pavilion will be made not only instructive and entertaining, but especially attractive by features for the little folks.

In the way of exhibits there will be farm and dairy products in great profusion, needle and fancy work, paintings and works of art, manufactures, novelties and an endless variety of goods, wares and merchandise that will in the aggregate make the Pavilion a grand bazaar in which a visitor can find entertainment for hours.

No pains will be spared to give everyone far more for the price than was ever attempted on a similar occasion in the State.

Help the Fair out by giving it your aid and encouragement and you will find that the investment will be returned one hundred fold.

Inter-State Irrigation Congress.

The Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco has appointed O. T. Sawall of that city to represent that body at the Interstate Irrigation Congress, which is to meet at Lincoln, Neb., the last of the present month. It was also expressed by the Chamber of Commerce that the General Government should control Inter-state irrigation and Colonel H. B. Maxson of this place, who will in part represent Nevada at the congress, has been asked to cooperate with the California delegation in furthering this idea. Colonel Maxson has not committed himself to any proposition yet advanced, nor will he until he has become thoroughly informed regarding the details of the various matters to be considered and how they will affect this State. It is believed that the Congress will be of great benefit in the cause of irrigation.

Injured at the Track.

Paul Lofthouse, a jockey for Lem Allen, while practicing a runner at starting by the Australian gate yesterday, was severely injured by his horse rearing and falling backward upon him. One of his legs was badly sprained, but luckily was not broken.

While Dr. Patterson, who had been called, was attending to the injured boy, a horse that Mike Talley, another rider, was working out up the same caper, falling on Talley and breaking his collarbone. The doctor reduced the fracture.

Fitzsimmons Contradicts Reports.

Robert Fitzsimmons writes the Appeal of Carson denying the report that he was about to establish a stable of fast horses also denies that his father and mother are objects of charity and in order to disprove the assertion he sends a letter which he received from his parents acknowledging the receipt of $200. He also says the only way he could ever meet Corbett would be by chasing him.

Funch and Judy.

President Powning has secured a Punch and Judy attraction for next week especially for the children. Of course the old folks will be allowed to "take the children" and can look on while the children enjoy the fun.

In addition he will introduce games, swings and other amusements for the little folks. Mr. Powning says he will give the children a good time, if the Society don't make a cent.

Withdrew His Resignation.

E. Benjamin Andrews has withdrawn his resignation as President of Brown University at Providence, R. I. The students celebrated the event and the University was reopened with renewed activity and vigor. The withdrawal of the resignation was entirely unexpected.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

The Elleford Company.

A correspondent from a neighboring town offers us the following assurance that we are to receive a theatrical treat:

"The good and entertaining work of the Ellefords does not consist solely of the meritorious productions in the dramatic line, but also of Jessie Norton's galaxy of songs, which she renders with a pathos that reaches the heart and places her honest self still closer to a multitude of admirers.

Mr. Elleford closes his third season with increased popularity, and he is entitled to our gratitude for furnishing popular plays at prices that "Uncle Poverty" and a host of his constituents could take advantage of and enjoy what to them possessed merit equal to Froham's best.

Mr. and Mrs. Elleford are a couple whom to know is but to esteem, and the entire company will be a sweet remembrance to our theatre goers.

Harbingers of Prosperity.

A San Francisco drummer who lately stopped over at Reno, declares that fleas are nearly as numerous and fully as industrious at the Riverside city, as in almost any town in California. Heretofore these enterprising insects have been an unknown quantity in this State and the Renoites are at a loss to account for their recent materialization on this side of the mountains.

Probably they were thrown over in spray from the McKinley wave of prosperity and are the advance agents and harbingers of the manifold blessings Nevada is to enjoy from the Dingley law, the India famine and other beneficent creations and gifts of our Republican Administration.—Times Review.

Advices Dehorning.

Wyoming cattlemen who are shipping cattle to Nebraska and other feed farms are advised by Chicago commission firms to dehorn all cattle shipped for feeders. It is stated that cattle when dehorned will feed better and when shipped to market will travel quietly and arrive at the yards without bruises. Eastern shippers and exporters will pay from 10 to 15 cents per 100 pounds more for dehorned cattle, all other conditions being similar, as the cattle show up in so much better condition at their destination. Horned cattle hook one another and fight more or less, and consequently injure the sale of the carcasses.

Pillowless Sleepers.

Are pillows damaging to beauty? A prominent lady, who is famous for her grace of carriage, sleeps on a hard straight bed. There is no doubt that the practice of sleeping with the head high is not nearly so restful or conducive to a good carriage as a flatter pose. The head should only be raised slightly above the level of the body at the utmost, and it will be found that one is more rested in the morning after sleeping with the head fairly low than with a bolster and a pillow or two underneath it. Mothers should accustom their children to lie nearly flat in bed, so that their spines may grow perfectly straight.—Philadelphia Times.

His Eyes Much Better.

Frank Eoyart, whose eyes were so badly injured by a blast sometime ago, was able to see better yesterday than he has since the accident. Since his return home his general health has improved and this seems to help the condition of his eyes. He was greatly encouraged yesterday over the marked improvement in three or four days time.

The Place to Lose 'Em.

Years ago some one asked Sam Jones, brother of Senator Jones, if he belonged to the club.

"Yes," said Sam, "I do. You see when a man comes to me with a letter from some one in San Francisco, I take the man up there and—lose him."—Appeal.

District Court.

The case of the Union Ditch Co. vs. B. F. Leete occupied the attention of the District Court yesterday.

An Extensive Business for Sale.

On account of various matters in which he is interested demanding so much of his attention, R. H. Cowles finds that he cannot devote the proper amount of time to his Grocery Business at Wadsworth and hereby announces he will sell the building at Wadsworth in which is located his General Merchandise Store, the lot on which it stands, a large fire-proof cellar, the stock of goods on hand, the good will, etc. The goods are all fresh, nothing shop worn. The business is a prosperous one and the only reason for selling is to enable Mr. Cowles to give all of his time to other industries in which he is engaged. Wadsworth is the best business town in Nevada to-day and this opening offers a splendid opportunity for some good man to locate in Wadsworth. Call on R. H. Cowles at his store. aug26mol
